Prelude In My Heart Afro-American Spiritual

Call to Worship

Look, here is our God, the One we have waited for.

Let us be glad and rejoice in our salvation.

Come feast on rich food and dine on fine wine.

Enjoy the blessings of the Lord, the vindication from our God.

Come! Let us worship the Lord.*

* Hymn Sing with All the Saints in Glory Hymnal no. 702

* Opening Prayer

God of new beginnings, you are the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end of all things. Remove the shroud that separates us from your mighty presence that we may see you as you are. Wipe away our tears and take away our disgrace that we may come before your throne with hearts full of song and souls ablaze with joy. Help us to live as those who are prepared to die, and enable us to die as those who go forth to live, so that whether living or dying, our hearts will always belong to you. Amen.*

* Offering Prayer

God of abundance, you offer us rich food and fine wines; you bless us with all the bounty of your heavenly banquet. May the gifts we offer this day, provide food and drink to those who go without, that all may come to know the blessings of your table, in this world and in the world to come. Amen.*

* Benediction

With clean hands and pure hearts, hold fast to the faith of the saints who went before us.

In our living and in our dying, we belong to God.

With hopeful hearts and expectant spirits, receive the blessings of our gracious host.

In our living and in our dying, we belong to God.

With Christ as our door to eternal life, find the courage to open the door and go in.

In our living and in our dying, we belong to God.*

A Litany for Those Who Have Joined the Church Triumphant

Ever living God, this day revives in us memories of loved ones who are no more. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy, when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.
Their memory is a blessing forever.

Months or years may have passed, and still we feel the pain. Our hearts yearn for them. Though the bitter grief has softened, a duller pain abides; for the place where once they stood is empty now. The links of life are broken, but the links of love and longing cannot break.
Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

We see them now with the eye of memory; their faults forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So does goodness live, and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.
Their memory is a blessing forever.

And we remember as well the members who but yesterday were part of our congregation and community. To all who cared for us and labored for all people, we pay tribute. May we prove worthy of carrying on the tradition of our faith, for now the task is ours.
Their souls are bound up in ours forever.

We give you thanks that they now live and reign with you. As a great cloud of witnesses, they surround us with their blessings, and offer you hymns of praise and thanksgiving.
They are alive for ever more. Amen.
