CALL TO WORSHIP

We have come from afar and waited long and are wearied. Let us sit side by side, sharing the same bread drawn from the same source to quiet the same hunger that makes us weak. Then standing together let us share the same spirit the same thoughts that once again draw us together in friendship and unity and peace. Amen.

* HYMN One Bread, One Body Hymnal no.620

* OPENING PRAYER

God, like a bakerwoman, you bring the leaven which causes our hopes to rise. With your strong and gentle hands, shape our lives. Warm us with your love. Take our common lives and touch them with your grace,, that we may nourish hope among humanity. We pray trusting in your name, through Jesus our Christ. Amen.

INVITATION TO THE OFFERING

As disparate peoples from many lands, we have been knit together by God into a holy community. From strangers, Christ has built us together into a holy temple in the Lord. With thankful hearts to the One who continues to bless us, let us be generous as we collect today's offering.*

*So then, putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbors, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin;
do not let the sun go down on your anger,
and do not make room for the devil.
Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labor and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy.
Let no evil talk come out of your mouths,
but only what is useful for building up,
as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear.
And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption.
Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.*
